Family Law

The attorneys in Strong & Hanni's Family Law Group provide the knowledge, skill, creativity, and personal attention that clients need to successfully resolve legal issues that occur in family disputes and domestic matters. Legal problems arising out of family disputes can be confusing and fraught with emotional issues that are often difficult to manage without a perceptive lawyer employing tactful yet vigorous representation.

The Family Law Group works with clients to understand their unique situations, goals, and needs. They focus on what is in the best interest of the client—in both the short and long term—and do everything possible to maintain the client's legal rights. Our attorneys work to help clients solve their problems and move on with their lives.

When seeking to solve family law issues, litigation is not the only option available to our clients. We recommend using Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) when possible and appropriate. ADR methods include negotiation, mediation, collaborative law process, and arbitration. ADR allows clients to resolve their legal problems in a more timely and efficient manner with less of the emotional stress often found in family law issues.

The Family Law Group offers legal services and counsel in every area affecting families including:

- Adoption
- Annulment
- Child Support
- Custody
- Divorce
- Guardianships
- Paternity
- Parent-time and Visitation
- Prenuptial and Premarital Agreements
- Property and Asset Division
- Protective Orders
- Qualified Domestic Relations Orders
- Spousal Support
- Surrogacy Agreements
